

Successful Environmental Auditing— Assessing and Improving Your Business Performance

Date : Tuesday 27th March 2012

Time : 4.35pm (5pm start) – 7pm

Venue: Bethel Convention Centre, Kelvin Way, West Bromwich, B70 7JW

This FREE seminar will look environmental auditing and assessing your business's environmental performance. Anyone who has an Environmental Management System will know the importance of regular auditing and monitoring and measuring of business performance.

However, even if you don't have a management system, auditing is still important to:

- Ensure the business is operating efficiently
- Identify savings and environmental improvements made.
- Identify potential for further savings and improvements
- Ensure legal compliance

We will look at how and why to carry out an audit, including practical tips and hints and developing an audit checklist as part of the session.

This seminar will also include:

- Up-to-date information on funding and other support available.
- Environmental legislation update
- Presentation of Business Environment Charter certificates to new Charter members or to businesses who have improved their environmental performance.
